GUIDING PRINCIPLES OF THE COMMISSION

Artistic Excellence

Supporting and stimulating excellence in the arts throughout Virginia as it pertains to public interest and appreciation is the responsibility of the Commission. The Commission supports artistic excellence, encourages innovation in artistic programming, and ensures artistic excellence is available to all Virginians.

While artistic excellence varies in relation to the organization's mission, goals, audiences, and activities, the defining elements include a commitment to innovation; a deep understanding of the particular medium presented to an audience; communication of a vision; and strong technique for both traditional and contemporary art forms.

Artistic excellence is a primary consideration in the decision to fund any arts organization or arts activity. Commission-selected Advisory Panels complete evaluations of artistic excellence through the lens of their own thought leadership and experience in the arts.

Diversity, Opportunity, and Inclusion

The Commonwealth of Virginia is committed to diversity, opportunity, and inclusion. As a state agency, the Virginia Commission for the Arts invests in opportunities for quality arts experiences made available and accessible to all Virginians. As such, the Commission funds arts organizations, artists, and arts activities that preserve and present the many diverse and vibrant cultures in the Commonwealth.

Commission grantees are also expected to actively seek and create opportunities for diversity and inclusion in their artists, audiences, Boards, and staff. Applications for funding should fully describe all efforts to cultivate diversity, opportunity, and inclusion.

Accessibility

The Commission believes that all Virginians have the right to access and experience the arts in our Commonwealth. As a state agency, we strive to meet and exceed federal accessibility standards to benefit our communities. All applicants are expected to consider the needs and abilities of special populations when planning their programs.

Individual Artist Support

The Commission relies on a healthy, vital, and productive arts infrastructure that supports Virginia's individual artists and arts entrepreneurs. The Commission provides leadership in supporting artists and arts professionals in their development and ability to sustain themselves through their work.

Capacity-Building of Arts Organizations

The Commission provides ongoing support for established arts organizations and helps in the development of new arts organizations which fill a community need. In deciding which organizations to support, the Commission looks for high standards of artistic quality and management, as well as local commitment to an organization.

The Commission funds organizations that strive for artistic excellence. The Commission defines a “professional” organization as one composed of, hiring, or serving artists who earn or endeavor to earn their living through the practice of their art.

The Commission views its financial assistance role to arts groups as that of a catalyst, helping to strengthen private and local support of the arts. The Commission believes in a diversified funding base for arts organizations, including cash reserve funds; endowment funds; in-kind support; earned income from ticket sales/admission fees; and contributions from individuals, corporations, foundations, and government. This philosophy recognizes that government resources are limited while demands for services are high, and that the arts are healthier when open to diverse influences and not financially dependent on any single source of support.

Arts Education and Outreach

The Commission recognizes the essential role of arts learning and education in the intellectual and creative growth of Virginians of all ages. The study of the arts is essential to human development and the education of all citizens, and that study begins through participation. As such, grantees are expected to actively seek and present arts experiences and provide resources and opportunities in which knowledge and appreciation of the arts is bolstered. The expansion of outreach and access to quality arts learning for underserved, under-resourced, and under-represented populations is also considered for funding.

VCA grantees are required to acknowledge funding support in accordance with the specific credit requirements of each grant program:

Virginia Commission for the Arts and National Endowment for the Arts Funding Acknowledgement:

- General Operating Support: Medium and Large Arts Organizations | GOS*

Grant Amounts

Commission grants to any established arts organization in one year will total no more than 30 percent of that organization’s income for the previous year. Refer to each grant category for specific, maximum grant amounts and matching requirements.

Low priority will be given to organizations that do not show strong efforts to seek multiple funding resources, such as ticket revenue, contributed income, or in-kind support. Support for an organization or project does not imply future Commission support. Applications must be submitted each year. All Commission grants are subject to funds available.

Certification of Assurances

Each grant application must be signed by an individual with the authority to act on behalf of the applicant organization. Additionally, applicants must attach a signed copy of the Certification of Assurances to the application which is the applicant’s agreement to complete what is described in the application and to comply with the grant conditions.

Most organizations will receive less than the maximum, and no organization is guaranteed a specific funding amount. If approved, minimum grant awards will be $5,000 per year.

Criteria for Evaluating Applications

- Artistic Excellence
- Operational Excellence
- Community Engagement and Access

Artistic Excellence (30 points) is measured by the quality of an organization's artistic work and how effectively its programming reflects a clear artistic vision aligned with its mission and goals. Because artistic excellence varies across disciplines and cultural traditions, applicants are evaluated in the context of their stated mission, audiences, and community role. Reviewers assess intentional artistic planning, strong artistic leadership, and programming that contributes meaningfully to the cultural life of the communities served, including how organizations support and sustain the artists involved in their work.

Operational Excellence (30 points) is measured by the organization’s capacity to operate effectively and sustainably in support of its mission. Reviewers assess leadership and governance, financial stability, and the systems the organization uses to plan, manage, and evaluate its operations. This includes the strength and clarity of Board and staff roles, the organization’s fiscal position and revenue diversification, and the use of a Board-approved strategic planning process that guides decision-making and long-term sustainability.

Community Engagement and Access (40 points) is measured by how effectively an organization understands and serves its communities by offering inclusive, relevant, and accessible arts experiences. Reviewers consider how clearly the applicant defines its communities, how well programming aligns with community interests and needs, and the organization’s commitment to reducing barriers to participation. Reviewers also assess the organization’s strategies for engaging new and underserved groups, providing arts education and lifelong learning opportunities, and using feedback to continually improve accessibility and engagement.

NOTE: Organizations with annual income over $1 million (for the previous two consecutive years) must submit an opinioned, audited financial statement from the most recently completed fiscal or calendar year. If the audit is not complete by the grant deadline, a Board-approved Profit and Loss Statement from the most recently completed fiscal or calendar year can be submitted; however, the organization will be required to submit an audit prior to the Advisory Panel screening session.

Application/Review/Payment Process

1. Applicants submit the information requested by the Commission online by the deadline.
2. The Commission staff reviews each application for completeness and eligibility. Incomplete or ineligible applications will not be reviewed, will be returned to the applicant with an explanation, and will not be funded.
3. Applications are made available to the members of an Advisory Panel electronically.
4. Advisory Panelists independently review each application prior to the Advisory Panel Screening Session.
5. The Advisory Panel meets with two members of the Commission staff. Commissioners may attend Advisory Panel Screening Session as silent observers. The Advisory Panel makes its recommendations after group discussion.
6. The Commission Board then reviews the recommendations of the Advisory Panel and staff and takes final action on the applications.
7. Applicants are notified of Commission action by email following vote at the Commission Board meeting and pending enactment of the fiscal year budget per the General Assembly and National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) Partnership Agreement.
8. The Commission will pay the award in full by early September. The Commission reserves the right to use an alternative payment schedule in special circumstances.

- 9. GOS Final Report Part I (narrative) must be submitted after the completion of all funded activities or by June 1, 2027. GOS Final Report Part II (financials) must be submitted by October 1, 2027. Failure to submit a Final Report by the deadline will impact future funding.

NOTE: The locality must issue payment in full to the subgrantee, which includes both the VCA portion and the locality's match. The Virginia Commission for the Arts (VCA) sends its match to the locality, which is then responsible for sending the entire payment to the subgrantee.

There are two acceptable methods to verify full payment to subgrantees:

1. Two-Payment Method: The locality issues payment for its portion first and, once VCA funds are received, forwards the VCA match to the subgrantee. In this case, the VCA will send a second report form to verify the payment of VCA's match.
2. Single-Payment Method (Preferred): The locality pays the subgrantee in full by combining both the locality and VCA portions in a single payment. This approach streamlines the process, eliminates the need for a second payment, and removes the requirement for additional VCA payment verification once funds are received.

Although the Final Report and verification of payment are not due until February 1, 2027 (by 5:00 p.m. EST), localities are encouraged to complete the report as soon as possible. Submitting early allows VCA to process its match sooner, which helps ensure subgrantees receive their full payments without delay.

The Commission will pay the grant match in full after receiving this confirmation. The deadline for the Final Report/Confirmation is February 1, 2027, by 5:00 p.m. EST. Failure to submit a Final Report by February 1 will result in the loss of the grant.

NOTE: If the local or tribal government receives more than $750,000 in yearly federal expenditures from Commonwealth agencies, they must submit a Single Audit Report.

This vetted list encompasses a variety of arts disciplines, with each artist recognized for expertise in their field and ability to develop and implement audience-specific arts curricula. Artists awarded inclusion onto the Roster receive an allocation specifically designated to Arts in Practice Grant requests for the upcoming grant cycle. VCA Teaching Artists book engagements with partnering organizations, who then apply for Arts in Practice Grants. The VCA does not act as a booking agent. Artists are responsible for developing effective marketing strategies and creating promotional materials to facilitate residencies and connect with partnering organizations.

Application/Review Process for Inclusion onto the Teaching Artist Roster

1. Applicants complete and submit the online application to the Commission by the deadline.
2. The Commission staff reviews each application for completeness and eligibility. Incomplete or ineligible applications will not be reviewed, will be returned to the applicant with an explanation, and will not be funded.
3. Commission staff forwards applications to members of the statewide, multi-disciplinary Advisory Panel to review prior to the Advisory Panel Screening Session.
4. The Advisory Panel meets with two members of the Commission staff. Commissioners may attend Advisory Panel Screening Sessions as silent observers. The Advisory Panel makes its recommendations after group discussion.
5. The Commission Board then reviews the recommendations of the Advisory Panel and staff and takes final action on the applications.

6. Applicants are notified of Commission action by email following vote at the next Commission Board meeting following the Advisory Panel Screening Session.
7. The Commission reserves funding for each VCA Teaching Artist to book residencies with potential applicants for the FY28 grant cycle. VCA Teaching Artists draft contracts with applicants, who then apply for Arts in Practice Grants from June 1, 2027, to April 1, 2028.
8. If a Teaching Artist has used all of their original teaching allocation prior to January 1, 2027, they may reach out to Commission staff to inquire about reserved waitlist funds. If funding is available, they may book additional residencies and encourage organizations to apply to the Commission’s “waitlist” on a first-come, first-served basis. It is the responsibility of the VCA Teaching Artist to explain that there is no guarantee of funding in this situation. Waitlist applications are due two weeks before the intended activity date.

BACKGROUND CHECK

If awarded inclusion on the VCA’s Teaching Artist Roster, applicants must agree to a national background check to ensure their capacity to work with school-aged students, the elderly, or individuals with disabilities. Questions regarding background checks may be directed to the Commission’s staff.

SUGGESTIONS FOR GRANT APPLICANTS

SUGGESTIONS FOR GRANT APPLICANTS

- Visit the Commission website (www.vca.virginia.gov) regularly for news, grant applications, deadlines, and Final Report forms. Each year the Commission staff conducts virtual workshops to explain the different grant programs and application procedures. Applicants are encouraged to attend.
- Sign up for the Virginia Commission for the Arts Newsletter here
- Read the “General Policies” section as well as the Guidelines for Funding for a particular grant program. General Policies apply to all grantees of the Commission.
- If you are a new applicant, contact the Commission staff for information on application procedures and to confirm eligibility.
- In preparing grant applications, do not assume that the application reviewers know your organization firsthand. Tell your organization’s story and the impact it is hoping to achieve in as concise and compelling a manner as possible. Include factual information to support statements of impact.
- Ensure that your budget is clear, concise, and justifiable. Ensure each budget item relates directly to the project activities.
- Provide well-curated work samples. If applicable to the grant program, select recent, high-quality work samples and videos and clearly label each with brief contextual information. Avoid overwhelming reviewers with unnecessary or excessive attachments. Strong, relevant samples can significantly strengthen an application.
- Do not use jargon, buzz words, or insider language in the application.
- Include letters of support from stakeholders, partners, or community leaders to strengthen your application, if applicable. These letters can be beneficial in demonstrating community support or the necessity of the project.
- Proofread, and have others proofread, the application before submitting it. Typos or grammatical errors can detract from the content of your proposal.
- Whenever possible, use quantitative metrics to support your claims. For instance, if your organization previously received a grant, show the measurable impact that funding had.
- Submit applications early to avoid system errors and the risk of technical issues or incomplete uploads. Applicants are encouraged to upload all materials at least 48 hours before the deadline, allow time for troubleshooting, and confirm successful submission.
- Once an application is submitted, inform the Commission promptly of any changes in the address, key personnel, programming, or other pertinent information regarding the grant application. If a grant is awarded, any substantive changes in the activities or budget described in the application must be approved in advance by the Commission staff.
- The Commission staff are available to answer any questions about the grant programs and applications.

CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLIANCE AND APPEALS PROCESS

COMPLAINTS PERTAINING TO CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLIANCE

Any person who believes that a grantee of the Virginia Commission for the Arts is not in compliance with either the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act, or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 may file a written complaint with the Executive Director of the Commission. The letter of complaint must include information about the dates, location, and specific aspects of the grantee's activities that may not be in compliance.

The staff of the Commission will attempt to resolve the matter informally, if possible, by meeting with the grantee, the complainant, and the Office of the Attorney General.

If the Commission determines that the grantee is in full compliance with Civil Rights requirements, the Executive Director of the Commission will inform the grantee and the complainant. If the Commission determines that the matter cannot be resolved informally, the matter will be further considered for suspension or termination of funding.

APPEALS PROCESS FOR GRANT APPLICANTS

Applicants who believe their applications for funding were rejected for any of the following three reasons may appeal to the Commission for reconsideration:

1. The application was declined on the basis of review criteria other than those appearing in the guidelines;
2. The application was declined due to influence of Advisory Panel or Commission members who willfully failed to disclose conflicts of interest; or
3. The application was declined because erroneous information was provided by the staff, Advisory Panelists, or Commission Board members at the time of review, despite the fact that the applicant provided accurate and complete information on regulation forms as part of the standard application process.

Incomplete applications are specifically denied any appeals process. Dissatisfaction with the denial of an award or the amount of a grant award is not grounds for appeal.

Requests of appeals must be received, in writing, at the Commission office WITHIN 30 DAYS of the applicant's notification of a funding award decision. The Board of the Commission will review and act upon eligible appeals at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

If the Board of the Commission changes a funding decision as a result of an appeal, the timing of the payment of the grant will be at the discretion of the agency's Executive Director.

APPEALS PROCESS FOR TOURING AND TEACHING ARTIST ROSTERS

Applicants for either the Touring Artist Roster or Teaching Artist Roster may appeal a decision not to be included on the Roster on the basis of the three reasons listed above. The same procedure is followed for these appeals with the exception that applicants have only 15 days from notification to file their appeals because of publication schedules. These appeals will be reviewed and acted upon by the Executive Committee of the Commission.

ADVISORY PANELS

ADVISORY PANELS

The role of the Advisory Panels of the Virginia Commission for the Arts is to assist with recommendations and guidance on grant applications. Advisory Panelists evaluate activities funded by the Commission. They are selected for one-year terms and may be re-selected twice to serve a maximum of three years.

Advisory Panelists are leaders in the arts industry who are passionate about the positive impact of the arts on the Commonwealth. Advisory Panelists span expertise across multiple disciplines and include individual artists; educators; community leaders; museum curators; theatre directors; Board leaders; and arts administrators.

Each of the regional and statewide Advisory Panels consists of five to seven members selected by the Commission. Advisory Panelists are chosen for their expertise in the arts, their ability to work with others in a group setting, and their willingness to devote the time required to review applications. In making selections to the Advisory Panels, the Commission attempts to balance knowledge of the different arts disciplines and diverse cultural perspectives.

Nominations for Advisory Panels

Nominations for the Advisory Panels may be submitted to the VCA at any time during the year. Each nomination must include a brief description of the individual's experience in the arts, an address, and a telephone number. An individual may nominate him or herself.

Conflict of Interest Policy and Procedure for Advisory Panels

Advisory Panelists are required to declare any conflicts of interest with organizations that are applying for funding at the beginning of the review process. In the event of a conflict of interest with an individual or organization, Advisory Panelists must immediately inform VCA staff and not proceed reviewing that application. To ensure that the Commission's decision-making processes are free from conflict of interest and appearance of conflict, the Advisory Panelists will follow these procedures:

If an Advisory Panelist or a member of their immediate family is affiliated with any applicant, either as an employee or in a policy-making role such as serving on the board of directors, they will be recused from the review of that organization. At the Advisory Panel screening session, they will leave the session during the discussion of that application and will not vote.

Specifically: Advisory Panelists shall abstain from evaluation, discussion and voting under the following conditions:

- when applications are presented from organizations which employ them or their immediate families; or
- when applications are presented from organizations with which they or their immediate families are otherwise directly affiliated; or
- when applications are presented which are likely to affect them financially

Conflict of Interest Definitions

Affiliation: Includes employment, board membership, officer of the board, policy-making relationships, paid independent contractual arrangements, and other financial affiliations, including status of contributor of more than 5% of an applicant organization's budget.

Immediate Family: Includes spouse, domestic partner, children, grandchildren, or household members.

Conflict of Interest Complimentary Tickets

Monitoring grantee programs and events is not a required part of the Advisory Panel review process. VCA does not consider the offer of complimentary tickets to be a conflict of interest, but rather a part of field work. Typically, these tickets do not include admission to fundraising events, galas, or other social gatherings. Please note that an Advisory Panelist may not formally request complimentary tickets from an arts organization being reviewed.

The Advisory Panelist Nomination Form can be found on the Commission website under "About/Advisory Panels".
